Under new ownership as of August 1, 2012, "A Classy Exchange" offers both the consignor and the customer a unique and positive boutique selling and buying experience! We strive to specialize in top brand names, designer clothing and accessories at fair prices!

- ◆ Per "A Classy Exchange's" Consignor's Agreement, consignors with "A Classy Exchange" will receive 50% (fifty percent) of the final selling price of items consigned. Consigned items are subject to periodic markdowns and daily sales at the discretion of "A Classy Exchange".
- ◆ As always, AUTHENTIC designer handbags and accessories are in demand. "A Classy Exchange" will NOT accept knock-offs. We offer an open-ended consignment period on higher end items. It is your responsibility to check periodically with us on the status of your item(s).
- ◆ If you are consigning valuable, unique designer or couture items; original receipts of purchase and/or certificates of authenticity may be required, as we want to satisfy our consignor and market the item as well as possible to sell.

If you wish to pick up items that may not have sold during your consignment period, you must do so at the end of your 90 days contract. Items not picked up within five days of contract expiration become the property of "A Classy Exchange", and may be donated to a charity of our choice.
